1. Background

- 1.1. Judo Australia is committed to promoting and strengthening the positive image of Judo and its Participants in Australia and to ensuring that everyone involved with Judo is treated with respect and dignity.
- 1.2. This Code of Conduct aims to ensure that everyone involved in Judo is aware of the standards of behaviour expected of them and the mechanism for dealing with any conduct that is alleged to breach the Code of Conduct.
- 1.3. This Code of Conduct:
 - (a) Prescribes Prohibited Conduct;
 - (b) Can be adopted at Judo Australia, Member Organisation and Affiliate level without amendment; and
 - (c) Does not cover conduct and disciplinary matters arising under policies that form part of the National Integrity Framework.
- 1.4. The National Integrity Framework does not apply to this Code of Conduct but sits alongside it. Where a provision is inconsistent with the National Integrity Framework, the National Integrity Framework will apply to the extent of that inconsistency.
- 1.5. The IJF Code of Ethics applies to this Code of Conduct only to the extent where it is expressly mentioned. Where a provision of this Code of Conduct is perceived to be inconsistent with the IJF Code of Ethics, this Code of Conduct will apply to the extent of that inconsistency.
- 1.6. To the extent that previous Judo Australia policies and sporting codes prescribed Prohibited Conduct or procedures with respect to disciplinary matters prior to the enactment of this policy, such provisions will be replaced by this Code of Conduct and, if applicable, policies referred to in this Code of Conduct. However, any Prohibited Conduct arising from an Activity that takes place prior to the enactment of this Code of Conduct must be dealt with under the policies and processes of Judo Australia or relevant Sport Organisations existing at the time the complaint was made, regardless of where that complaint is at in that process.
