CHAIR REPORT

In reflecting on Kano's quote "It's not important to be better than someone else, but to be better than yesterday", and as someone who has devoted myself to judo, I know only too well what it feels like to be thrown time and time again, yet to become better, we must find the courage to stand up, refocus, and learn from the past. For me, the first 12 months in my new role has seen me come up against my hardest randoris for many years. Yes, it's been a tough one. However, slowly but surely traction is being gained, and with every small step forward we are seeing the future of Judo in Australia taking on a new shape. Judo is a way of life, and through its teachings we can all make a positive contribution, not only to Judo, but also to society.

We will all sit back in years to come and reflect on what a significant year the past 12 months has been, for not only us here in Australia, but the throughout the entire world. Australia's Covid-19 restrictions began to lessen in early January, with Western Australia eventually coming into line in March. A level of normality shortly resumed.

We held our first National Championships in June 2022 since the start of the pandemic back in March 2020. And like many sports, our 2022 National Championships was more than that, it was the start of a new era. There was a great feeling in the stadium with having everyone coming together again; and although the landscape had somewhat changed, we all witnessed many new champions, and we met many new faces. Kids from yesterday were now mixing it with the best.

2022 also marked the 70th Anniversary for the Judo Federation of Australia. What a remarkable achievement. I would like to sincerely thank and congratulate all of my predecessors and the boards', on your contribution to where we are today. The hours of work that you have all volunteered for our sport is exemplary – thank you all.

Our committees have also worked tirelessly throughout the past year. Mr. Arek Zygmunt, Referee Committee Chair, Mr. Luis Val, Sporting Committee Chair, Mr. Alan Broadhead, National Grading Commission Chair and Kodokan Committee Chair, Mr. Rob Ivers, Kata Committee

Chair, Mr. Kevin Murphy, Veterans Committee Chair, Mr. Xavier Barker, No Limits Committee Chair, and to Mr. John Azoury, our Medical Officer. Your contributions to Judo in Australia is what continues to make our sport better than it was yesterday.

So much of our success also lies in areas that are less visual. The Judo Australia Board members are significant contributors to the strategy and in steering the Judo in Australia business. I would like to thank our Board and Board Committees for their contribution over the past twelve months.

To our CEO, Mrs. Emma Taylor, thank you for the countless hours given to our sport. We in the sport industry know only too well that there is no such thing as a 38 hour working week, and you are living proof of this. You were at the forefront of the challenging year that was, and sometimes seeing the light at the other end was difficult. Though for every challenge, something good was on the horizon. This provided the motivation and vision of where we are today.

Our athletes have performed at levels not achieved for many years. The vision that was set many years ago is now coming to fruition and with the valuable input by our Judo Technical Director, Mrs. Maria Pekli, and our High-Performance delivery partner, the Combat Institute of Australia Limited, we are on a trajectory of even greater success. A big thank you to everyone contributing to this – our club coaches, the state coaches, the hub coaches, our National Coach, our pathways managers, and our high-performance delivery team. Thank you and congratulations.

With Brisbane 2032 on the horizon, our runway is becoming much clearer. We have a very unique opportunity and it is my intention to capitalise on this for you - to have more people, positively engaging in judo, in more places, more often, for life!

Yours in Judo

CEO REPORT

In reflecting on the past 12 month (which could be broken up into 2 categories – living in COVID and living with COVID) the importance of community and our judo clubs providing a place to belong- has never felt stronger. To walk into a dojo and put on a judogi, provides a connection to a worldwide community, but a community you have embraced and connected too. A community which has enabled you to focus, improve your mental health, feel a sense of accomplishment, feel proud and connect with people.

Judo has a unique gift. A gift that is the universal foundation of what we do and why we do it. What this gift looks like will vary; how we feel and embrace it- will not always look the same. But it is always there and if we bring this to the forefront of our everything we do, in every way – judo is Australia has the capability to move from strength to strength. This gift is our Moral Code.

Celebrations and acknowledgements of the 2021/ 2022 year are:

A MESSAGE FROM THE AUSTRALIAN OLYMPIC COMMITTEE

Australia's Olympians created their own special history at the Tokyo 2020 Olympics Games and in doing so, have created a wonderful platform for the Olympic movement through to Brisbane 2032 and beyond.

Getting 486 athletes to Tokyo in the midst of a global pandemic was a monumental task for the AOC and our National Federations and of course, a great testament to the athletes themselves, who had endured so much just to get to the start line.

History now records that Australia's tally of 17 Gold medals equals the previous high mark achieved in Athens 2004 and the total medal tally of 44 is the fourth highest of all time.

A total of 99 members of the Australian Team took home a medal from 14 sports and 19 disciplines.

There were other moments of great pride in Tokyo for Australia with Patrick Mills, our men's basketball captain, becoming the first Indigenous Australian to carry the Flag at the Opening Ceremony while Cate Campbell became the first female swimmer to achieve that honour also.

Our judo team members Katharina Haecker, Aoife Coughlan and Nathan Katz were very proud and valued members of this Team, returning to the home of their sport – and in the city where judo made its Olympic debut in 1964.

Australians embraced this Tokyo Olympic Team like no other to leave our shores. Just days prior to the Opening Ceremony, the IOC awarded Brisbane the right to host the 2032 Summer Olympic and Paralympic Games.

Olympic sport brought together three levels of government, as well as the Olympic and Paralympic movements in Australia to deliver this outstanding result for the future of Australian sport.

The Games in Brisbane has the potential to supercharge Australian sport for the next ten years until the Games, and a further ten years beyond.

The AOC also sees these Games as a moment we can share with all our friends and neighbours in the Pacific region in the decade ahead. It is not just Brisbane's Games or Australia's Games.

There is a unique, indeed once in a lifetime, opportunity for young athletes throughout Oceania to grow and develop their skills and achieve an Olympic dream in our own backyard.

The AOC was delighted to assist the Federal Government deliver a program to support more than 86 athletes from 11 Pacific nations to train for and attend the Tokyo Olympics and Paralympics.

The challenges of preparing for and qualifying for these Games were huge and this partnership was our way of providing that helping hand for athletes, coaches and support staff. As always, sport has the power to bring us all together.

The AOC and Commonwealth Games Australia is also looking to raise the priority given to Australian sport in the public policy landscape, given the enormous contribution sport can make in developing Australia's wellbeing and economic growth.

We have provided a submission to our Federal Government that sets a new path forward for sport and Government which also takes advantage of the "green and gold" runway of international sporting events that pave the way to the opening of the Brisbane Games in July 2032.

Events that will deliver direct economic return to the country through tourism, infrastructure, technology, education and health. Creating jobs and importantly helping businesses, particularly tourism and hospitality, recover from the crushing effect of the pandemic.

Already more than 30 international events are scheduled for the decade, including the FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup, UCI World Road Cycling Championships and Women's Football World Cup. Added to the calendar, Rugby World Cup 2027 (men) and 2029 (women) and the Commonwealth Games in regional Victoria in 2026.

The response from government has been positive and we are looking forward to progressing this opportunity to take full advantage of the unique opportunity hosting the Games in Brisbane presents not just Queensland but all Australia, and as I have indicated, beyond our shores into the Pacific region.

Working cooperatively with governments has been a vital undertaking for the AOC and will continue to be a priority for us. Taking Olympians into schools through the Olympics Unleashed and the Olympic Change Maker programs have been incredibly successful.

Our sincere thanks to Nathan Katz, who has spent countless hours in classrooms speaking with schoolchildren about goal-setting, finding a passion and overcoming obstacles as part of the Olympics Unleashed program. Nathan has gone above and beyond in making Unleashed a success.

While the pandemic in 2020 and 2021 restricted the opportunities for face to face interaction between Olympians and students, the appetite in the education sector for the messages Olympians impart remains powerful.

Having established the Federal Parliamentary Friends of the Olympic Movement in 2019, the Queensland Parliament has also established a similar group and I expect others will follow in the next 12 months. These groups are not aligned with any party, but allow politicians to come together with a common love of Olympic sport to celebrate our shared values.

Certainly, these relationships have assisted the AOC overcome the enormous challenges following the postponement of the Games in 2020 and ultimately getting our Team safely to Tokyo, competing to their best ability and then safely home in COVID world.

The AOC established Project Wagasa (Japanese for umbrella) specifically to address those challenges from qualifying events, getting athletes and support staff vaccinated, overcoming complex travel arrangements, keeping athletes safe at the Games and ultimately home and into hotel quarantine.

We can only hope that Paris 2024 will not require such an additional workload, but of course it was worth it on behalf of all our athletes.

As we know, the Games could not have come at a better time for Australians dealing with COVID lockdowns in many places. Australia's Olympic campaign shattered viewing records for broadcaster Channel Seven on both its main channel and 7plus.

Up until the final session on Friday 6 August, Australians had watched more than 4.7 billion minutes on 7plus, making it the biggest digital event in Australian history.

A total of 20.20 million Australians watched Seven's live coverage of Tokyo 2020 from Opening Ceremony to Closing Ceremony – with 41% also watching on 7plus. An amazing result.

Finally, can I pay tribute to our former President John Coates, who so skilfully ensured that the Tokyo Olympic Games were able to proceed so successfully through his role as Chair of the IOC's Coordination Commission - and of course his pivotal role in getting the Brisbane 2032 candidature across the line at the IOC Session in Tokyo.

John has passed the Presidential baton to Ian Chesterman, our Tokyo Chef de Mission. Ian's election ensures the needs of athletes and our Olympic sports remain our highest priorities, particularly with the promise of Brisbane 2032 now a reality.

A MESSAGE FROM SPORT AUSTRALIA

Sport has a place for everyone and delivers results that make Australia proud.

This is the Australian Sports Commission's (ASC) vision as we embark on a defining era in Australian sport over the next decade and beyond.

We are setting out to lead, support and provide opportunities for all communities to be involved in sport, while growing elite success and representation, inspiring future generations.

Our role, as the Australian Government agency responsible for supporting and investing in sport at all levels, is to increase involvement in sport and enable continued international sporting success.

We do this through leadership and development of a cohesive and effective sports sector, targeted financial support and the operation of the Australian Institute of Sport (AIS).

We play a unique role in the sport ecosystem and tackle the big challenges and opportunities with and for the sector.

We're proud to do so and through our vision, we aim to bring out the best in everyone involved in sport as we establish Australia as the world's best sporting nation.

The 2022 Birmingham Commonwealth Games provided a perfect launch pad for our athletes to shine.

To finish on top of the medal table with 67 gold and cement our status as the most successful nation in the event's history sets us up brilliantly as we look to host the next Games in Victoria 2026.

These Games, uniquely hosted in regional areas, will be another opportunity to inspire Australians to get involved in sport, and to champion the role sport can play in engaging every Australian.

This is a defining era for Australian sport. We have begun the Green and Gold decade to Brisbane 2032, and we are focused on building sustainable success for decades to come.

The sporting strategies, programs and facilities we deliver now have the capacity to shape Australia's long-term prosperity, well beyond sporting boundaries. A thriving Australian sport system is enormously influential to a thriving Australia.

We will advocate for sport and its positive influence on Australia, promote and support inclusive and diverse sporting environments and drive thought leadership and innovation to inspire world's best practices.

We will build the capability of sport and the people involved through projects like our Sport Volunteer Coalition Action Plan which outlines a new approach to foster positive, safe and fulfilling experiences for sport volunteers, and our Women Leaders in Sport programs which champion equal representation in sport.

It has been great to see the AIS site buzzing with activity again after a challenging few years due to COVID-19. We continue to welcome sports and athletes back to the campus, who are all keen to use our facilities to prepare for major sporting events.

Our aim is for sport in Australia to be world's best so we will optimise our facilities to advance sport and use them to showcase sport at its best.

This is an incredible opportunity to unite and inspire Australia through sport as we capitalise on the calendar of major sporting events on the road to a home Olympic and Paralympic Games.

On behalf of the ASC, thank you to everyone who contributes to Australian sport with the aim of making it better for all.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The directors have prepared the financial statements of Judo Federation of Australia Ltd (the "Company") on the basis that the Company is a non-reporting entity because there are no users dependent on general purpose financial statements. The financial statements are therefore special purpose financial statements that have been prepared in order to meet the requirements of the Associations Incorporations Act 2009 of New South Wales (the "Act").

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the significant accounting policies disclosed below, which the directors have determined are appropriate to meet the needs of the Act. The Company has taken advantage of the relief in Class Order 11/01 Financial Reporting requirements and has prepared financial statements with reduced disclosures. Such accounting policies are consistent with the previous period unless stated otherwise.

The financial statements have been prepared on an accruals basis and are based on historical costs unless otherwise stated in the notes. The accounting policies that have been adopted in the preparation of the financial statements are as follows:

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, deposits held at call with banks, other short-term highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less, and bank overdrafts. Bank overdrafts are shown within borrowings in current liabilities on the statement of financial position.

Inventories

Inventories are measured at the lower of cost and or net realisable value.

Property, Plant and Equipment

Each class of property, plant and equipment is carried at cost or fair value less, where applicable, any accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

Plant and equipment are measured on the cost basis less depreciation and impairment losses. The carrying amount of plant and equipment is reviewed annually by the directors to ensure it is not in excess of the recoverable amount from those assets. The recoverable amount is assessed on the basis of expected net cash flows that will be received from the assets' employment and subsequent disposal. The expected net cash flows have been discounted to present values in determining recoverable amounts.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the entity and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to the statement of comprehensive income during the financial period in which they are incurred.

Increases in the carrying amount arising on revaluation of property, plant and equipment are credited to a revaluation reserve in equity. Decreases that offset previous increases of the same asset are charges against fair value reserves directly in equity; all other decreases are charged to the income statement. Each year the difference between depreciation based on the revalued carrying amount of the asset charged to the statement of comprehensive income and depreciation based on the asset's original cost is transferred from the revaluation reserve to retained earnings.

The depreciable amount of all fixed assets including buildings and capitalised leased assets, but excluding freehold land, are depreciated on a straight line or diminishing value basis over their estimated useful lives to the entity commencing from the time the asset is held ready for use. The assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period. An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount.

Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing proceeds with the carrying amount. These gains or losses are included in the income statement. When revalued assets are sold, amounts included in the revaluation reserve relating to that asset are transferred to retained earnings.

Trade and Other Receivables

Trade receivables and other receivables include amounts due from members in the ordinary course of business. Receivables expected to be collected within 12 months of the end of the reporting period are classified as current assets. All other receivables are classified as non-current assets.

Trade and other receivables are recognised at nominal transaction value without taking into account the time value of money.

Trade and Other Payables

Trade and other payables represent the liability outstanding at the end of the reporting period for goods and services received during the reporting period, which remain unpaid. The balance is recognised as a current liability with the amounts normally paid within 30 days of recognition of the liability.

Revenue and Other Income

Revenue is measured at the value of the consideration received or receivable.

Revenue from the sale of goods is recognised at the point of delivery as this corresponds to the transfer of significant risks and rewards of ownership of the goods and the cessation of all involvement in those goods.

Grant and donation income is recognised when the entity obtains control over the funds, which is generally at the time of receipt.

All revenue is stated net of the amount of goods and services tax (GST).

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

Revenues, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of GST, except where the amount of GST incurred is not recoverable from the Tax Office. In these circumstances, the GST is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of an item of the expense. Receivables and payables in the statement of financial position are shown inclusive of GST.

Employee Benefits

Provision is made for the entity's liability for employee benefits arising from services rendered by employees to the end of the reporting period. Employee benefits that are expected to be settled within a year have been measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liability is settled. Employee benefits payable later than one year have been measured at the present value of the estimated future cash outflows to be made for those benefits.

Income Tax

The Company has self assessed that it is exempt from income tax under Section 50-45 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997.

Rounding

The current accounting software is used to prepare the financial report which sources the data direct from the system. The financial report rounds this data to the nearest dollar which can result in immaterial rounding when presented in the financial report.

AUDITORS STATEMENT

To the members of Judo Federation Australia Ltd,

Report on the Audit of the Financial Report

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial report, being a special purpose financial report, of Judo Federation of Australia Ltd (the company) which comprises the balance sheet as at 30 June 2022, statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies and the directors' declaration.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial report of the company is in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001, including:

- i) giving a true and fair view of the company's financial position as at 30 June 2022 and of its financial performance for the year ended; and
- ii) complying with Australian Accounting Standards and the Corporations Regulations 2001.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report section of our report. We are independent of the company in accordance with the auditor independence requirements of the Corporations Act 2001 and the ethical requirements of the Accounting Professional and Ethical Standards Board's APES 110 Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the code) that are relevant to our audit of the financial report in Australia. We have also fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the code.

We confirm that the independence declaration required by the Corporations Act 2001, which has been given to the directors of the company, would be in the same terms if given to the directors as at the time of this auditors' report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Emphasis of Matter- Basis; of Accounting

We draw attention to note 1 to the financial report, which describes the basis of accounting. The financial report has been prepared for the purpose of fulfilling the directors' financial reporting responsibilities under the Corporations Act 2001. As a result, the financial report may not be suitable for another purpose. Our opinion is not modified in respect to this matter.

Responsibilities of Directors' for the Financial Report

The directors of the company are responsible for the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view and have determined that the basis of preparation described in note 1 to the financial report is appropriate to meet the requirements of the Corporations Act 2001 and is appropriate to meet the needs of the members. The directors' responsibility also includes such internal control as the directors determine necessary to enable the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view and is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial report, the directors are responsible for assessing the company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Responsibilities of Directors' for the Financial Report

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of this financial report.
